

Community Foundation Recognizes Professional Advisors who help their Clients Give Back to the Community

Ten local professional advisors have been named to the Princeton Area Community Foundation's (PACF) Professional Advisor Recognition Society. PACF created the Society to recognize the commitment of advisors to the community through their work with the community foundation to advance philanthropy and encourage charitable giving across central New Jersey.

"The advisors selected for this honor care deeply about our community, says PACF President and Executive Director, Nancy Kieling. "By working with the Princeton Area Community Foundation advisors can recommend charitable gift planning to their clients without recommending a specific charity, encouraging philanthropy across the region."

The advisors selected for PACF's Professional Advisor Recognition Society are:

Kenneth W. Field CPA
Field & Higgins

Patricia U. Herst Esq.
Goldstein & Herst

Thomas G. McMahon Esq.
Pellettieri, Rabstein & Altman

Marguerite L. Mount CPA
The Mercadien Group

David S. Mulchinock, Esq.
